

Dear Juergen

By popular demand, we will continue Schnitzelfest for another week! So those who are craving our Baden-Baden Schnitzel with the melted cheese and cumberland sauce, you have a few more days. If the Knoblach Schnitzel with the roasted garlic is a personal fave, come and get it! The weather is still nice, so bring your friends and enjoy our Biergarten.

Oktoberfest is officially over, but we still have the Spaten Oktoberfest Bier, the Hofbrau Oktoberfest Bier, and the Franconia Oktoberfest Bier on tap, so come in and try one of these great Biers before they are gone!

Our Baden-Baden Schnitzel is almost too pretty to eat!

favorite: Schwammerl Schnitzel

A true Bavarian autumn evening dream: A pan-seared Schnitzel served with an elegant red wine and wild forest mushroom sauce, we recommend our bread dumpling and fall vegetable medley with this treasure from the forests.

Hühnerbrust nach Gärtnerin Art

Breaded Chicken breast stuffed with young summer leeks, diced tomatoes and creamy spinach on a creamy herb sauce, served with any of our 14 different side dishes.

The holiday's are almost here, so when planning your holiday parties to let us here at Bavarian Grill help by catering your event! We offer several levels of service to suit the needs of all. Our website has more information.

Frohsinn Kapelle

The Kapelle (German for Band) can trace its beginnings to the early 1950's as a small ensemble called the "Frohsinn Schrammelkapelle" formed to accompany the "Dallas Frohsinn Singing Society." The Singing Society itself, also known as "Gesangverein Frohsinn" was formed in 1877 to help preserve German song, language and culture in Dallas. The original members of the Kapelle were also members of the Singing Society. In the early 1980's, it evolved into a full-sized Band called the "Frohsinn Kapelle". It was then organized as a non-profit entity independent of the Dallas Frohsinn Singing Society. In addition to becoming a staple at the annual
